The candidate

We need a super-smart, super-organised administrator to join our busy departments, supporting the event sales team and our amazing exhibitors. You will need to be approachable, a fantastic listener, composed under pressure, and fairly strong-willed, whilst remaining diplomatic. This is a fast-paced environment and things change all the time, so keeping your wits and common-sense about you is essential to ensure accuracy.

The Role

Amongst many different admin and support duties the role is to:

- Responsible for implementing and following company procedures
- Be responsible for looking after the shows in your division from a sales support perspective. This will include processing signed contracts for exhibition stands, working on Filemaker, sending welcome packs to exhibitors, pulling lists to share with our sales, marketing, studio and operations teams.
- Manage the online floorplan for your shows by liaising directly with the sales teams and plotting sold stands. You will be required to liaise between the Show Directors and our external floorplan hosts to support the restructuring of the floorplan for upcoming shows.
- Liaising with our external operation teams for each event with regards to floorplans and exhibitor manuals.
- Be the first point of contact for exhibitor queries and complaints. Logging them correctly on Filemaker and passing on to the relevant Sales Manager and Sales Director
- Work directly with the sales teams for your shows to ensure the booking process through to the team going onsite runs smoothly and efficiently.
- Compile lists and sort data exported from Filemaker
- Maintain a strong working relationship with other internal departments including Accounts, IT, Marketing, Studio
- Be responsible for print and digital assets in your division – chasing for copy and liaising with clients
- Ensure all print and digital deadlines are met
- Booking hotel rooms by given deadlines for clients and internal staff as required for the show
- Travel to work onsite (occasional weekends) in the Sales Office at our shows to support the team with re-bookings
- Assist the features team with designing and organisation of show features
- Support the sponsorship team with contracts and ensure all components can be actioned
- Assist the sponsorship team in acquiring sponsors assets where necessary
- Arrange supply orders for onsite where necessary i.e., stationery, food and snacks
- Assist other departments with tasks as and when required
